 - Website/Listserve Update (from Josh Brien – jpbrien@gmail.com)
 - Everyone should now be switched over to the new listserv. If they aren't on it, they can let me know and I'll add them.
 - The listserv is now set to reply to sender rather than to the listserv itself.
 - I've put up several common links on the yahoogroups site for people to use
 - I'm working on expanding the links on the webpage
 - Calendar works again on the webpage. login is section80/1925. People can add any events they want to open to the Section.
 - Convention links are at website and listserv site.
 - National Service Week database is linked from the website. There is an online project report form at that link too.
 - Let me know of any questions / comments / wants regarding the website and listserv
